

Wake Forest University's Center for International Studies presents:

Great Decisions 2009

in Winston-Salem

A Citizen's Forum on Current Foreign Policy Issues, March 19 thru April 23, 7:00 pm,
Scales Fine Arts Center Room A-102 at Wake Forest University

This year's topics and lecturers:

March 19: Afghanistan and Pakistan

Dr. Hank Kennedy, Department of Political Science, WFU.

March 26: Human Rights in a New Era: Wars for Peace

Dr. Sarah Lischer, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 2: The U.S. and the Rising Powers

Dr. Wei-Chin Lee, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 9: Global Food Crisis

Dr. Joseph Daniels, Department of Economics, WFU.

April 16: Cuba on the Verge

Dr. Peter Siavelis, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 23: Energy and the Global Economy

Dr. Robert Whaples, Department of Economics, WFU.

Great Decisions 2009 is an informative weekly forum open free to the public. The discussion of each Great Decisions topic is led by an expert in the relevant field. The Great Decisions Series is a national foreign policy education program sponsored by the non-partisan Foreign Policy Association.

Briefing booklets are available at the sessions.

Also, look for our homepage on the World Wide Web for the latest information:

www.wfu.edu/greatdecisions