

Wake Forest University's Center for International Studies presents:

Great Decisions 2010

in Winston-Salem

A Citizen's Forum on Current Foreign Policy Issues, March 18 thru April 22, 7:00 pm,
Scales Fine Arts Center Room A-102 at Wake Forest University

This year's topics and lecturers:

March 18: Transnational Crime: Globalization's Shadowy Stepchild.
Dr. Tom Brister, Department of Political Science, WFU.

March 25: China Looks at the World: the World Looks at China.
Dr. Neil Devotta, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 1: Europe's 'Far East': the Uncertain Frontier.
Dr. Helga Welsh, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 8: The U.S. and the Persian Gulf.
Dr. Hank Kennedy, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 15: Enhancing Security through Peacebuilding.
Dr. Will Walldorf, Department of Political Science, WFU.

April 22: The Global Financial Crisis and its Effects.
Dr. Donald Frey, Department of Economics, WFU.

Great Decisions 2010 is an informative weekly forum open free to the public. The discussion of each Great Decisions topic is led by an expert in the relevant field. The Great Decisions Series is a national foreign policy education program sponsored by the non-partisan Foreign Policy Association.

Briefing booklets are available at the sessions.

Also, look for our homepage on the World Wide Web for the latest information:

www.wfu.edu/greatdecisions